Frontier Question Unsolved

Bynes Proposes Peace Pact to Last at Least
Twenty-five Years

PARIS, April 30.—(P)—The foreign ministers of Britain, France, Russia and the United States argued the Italian-Yugoslav frontier question for an hour and a half today without reaching an accord.

Opposed by the British, French and American delegates, Russian Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov demanded the greater portion of the Istrian peninsula for Yugoslavia, conference quarters reported. It was not learned whether the Russians also demanded the cession of Trieste to Yugoslavia, but earlier reports were that the Soviet diplomats also wanted that Adriatic port to go to Marshal Tito.

The British, American and French proposals for the division of the Istrian peninsula were reported to have been roughly similar, but Molotov's suggestions would place the frontier much farther west.

When the conference failed to reach an accord, it was then agreed, at Molotov's suggestion, to hear statements from two Italian and two Yugoslav representatives.

Boundary Practically Same

All four nations have agreed, it was reported, that there will be no major changes in Austria's boundaries.

The council took up the Italian questions today after receiving from U. S. Secretary of State Byrnes a proposal for a four-power mutual assistance pact to keep the peace in Germany for at least 25 years.

PARIS, April 30.—(P)—The foreign ministers conference decided to devote its entire session today to a discussion of Trieste and the Italian-Yugoslav frontier questions after receiving from U. S. Secretary of State Byrnes a proposal for a four-power mutual assistance pact to keep the peace in Germany for at least a quarter of a century.

The ministers of Britain, Russia, France and the United States received copies of a boundary commission report on Venezuela Giulia, one of the most difficult problems of the conference.

No details of the report were made public, but it was believed to contain both majority and minority opinions. Previous reports of a virtual accord on the frontier issue apparently were not borne out.

Long Peace Pact

Byrnes' proposals would pledge American military might to keep the peace in Germany for at least 25 years as part of a long-term United States foreign policy.

The hitherto secret United States proposal, which would combine the military forces of the United States, Russia, Britain and France to assure a permanent German disarmament, was made public by Byrnes at a press conference last night, following a five-hour session of the foreign ministers' conference.

The Secretary of State also disclosed he had drafted a similar pact to keep the United States and other Allied forces on the alert against a revival of militarism in Japan, but declined to reveal details of this proposal.

Stalin Agreed

Byrnes said Stalin had supported the idea for the four-power treaty on Germany when the two discussed the matter in Moscow last Christmas. However, Vyacheslav Molotov, Russian foreign minister, yesterday opposed placing the matter on the conference agenda in connection with general discussions on Germany.

France and Britain have accepted the proposal in principle, Byrnes said, and Russia has expressed willingness to discuss it, although without setting a definite time.

Whether the treaty draft will be placed on the agenda remained unsettled when Byrnes asked for adjournment of the conference last night.

The proposed pact apparently was put forward with the sanction of Senator Connally (D-Tex.), chairman of the Senate foreign relations committee, and Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), ranking minority party member of the committee, who are acting as Byrnes' assistants at the conference.

It was an answer to fears, which Byrnes said had been expressed by Stalin and other leaders, that the United States might withdraw from European affairs as it did after the first world war.

Hitler's Death Anniversary Is Unnoticed

BERLIN, April 30.—(P)—The first anniversary of the reported death of Adolf Hitler passed unnoticed and apparently unmourned in his ruined capital today.

Berlin folk spent most of their time searching for food and other necessities.

The bombed-out chancellery and bunker where Hitler and his bride Eva Braun were declared in British intelligence reports to have died last April 30, were almost deserted throughout the day.

Some American soldiers took pictures of each other in front of Hitler's wrecked desk, lying in the garden of the chancellery.

Battle Royal For Control of State Offices

Final Day for Candidates to Make Filings

JEFFERSON CITY, April 30.—(P)—The final day for candidates to file for office opened today with a battle royal shaping up for control of Missouri's 13 congressional seats.

Filings close on the stroke of midnight tonight. After that candidates will have until August 6 to persuade party voters they deserve the nominations. At stake are the senatorial seat formerly held by President Truman, all the congressional posts, half the membership in the state senate and most of the circuit judge positions.

As the secretary of state's office opened for the final rush, eight incumbent congressmen had no opposition in their own party primaries and one—Rep. Orville Zimmerman, Kennett Democrat and member of Congress since 1934—was the only candidate from either party in the Tenth district.

Top Race

The top race on the ballot, for U. S. Senator, had the most aspirants.

They included Sen. Frank P. Briggs, Macon newspaper publisher who was appointed to succeed

Truman when he became vice-president in January, 1945. Opposing Briggs in the Democratic primary is B. Marvin Casteel of St. Joseph, former superintendent of the state highway patrol and a lieutenant colonel in the army during the war.

A third Democrat entered to-day—Robert I. Young of (RFD 5) St. Joseph, often a candidate for public office in previous years.

On the Republican side are Herman G. Grosby of St. Louis, who filed today; James P. Kem, Kansas City lawyer; a former state senator, Ray Mabee, of Unionville; former Congressman William P. Elmer of Salem and William McKinley Thomas, St. Louis shoe factory worker.

Others Entered

Two Socialists and a Prohibitionist also were entered.

In the congressional races, the first, second, fifth and eighth districts all promised hot contests with one of the sharpest fights for the Democratic nomination in the second, where Rep. Max Schwabe of Columbia is the Republican incumbent.

Schwabe had no opposition up to today but four contestants had entered the Democratic scramble for the right to oppose him in November.

They were Rep. Marvin "Bill" Wright, Salisbury legislator who was first in the race, and three who entered yesterday—Ike Skelton, Lexington attorney; Lloyd G. Hanley of Marshall, a war veteran, and William L. Nelson of Columbia, son of a former congressman.

In the first district Rep. S. W. "Wat" Arnold of Kirksville, Republican incumbent, is opposed in the primary by Henry S. "Hal" Beardsley of Chillicothe and Frank Summers of Memphis. The Democratic aspirants are Walter G. Stillwell of Hannibal and Fred Peterson of Trenton.

In the Fifth Rep. Roger Slaughter of Kansas City is the Democratic incumbent. Opposing him for the party nomination are Enos A. Axtell and Jerome Walsh, both Kansas City attorneys, while the only Republican entrant up to today was Albert L. Reeves, Jr., son of the federal district judge.

Socialist Filed

A Socialist, A. M. Demaree, also has filed.

The pivotal Eighth district finds Rep. A. S. J. Carnahan as the only Democratic entrant, while three Republicans are fighting it out to oppose him in the general election—Parke M. Banta, former state social security administrator; Robert A. McIlrath, judge

Seeking County Offices

Many Today Filed Declaration as Candidates for Party Nominations

Apparently two county offices in Pettis county will be uncontested by the Democrats—that of circuit judge, now held by Judge Dimmitt Hoffman, who is seeking his sixth term and Probate Judge Jacob E. Smith, his fifth in that office. All other county offices are expected to have candidates filed, but it is doubtful if either party will experience any primary opposition.

Candidates must file before midnight tonight.

An endeavor of the Pettis county committee to get candidates to file for the offices held by Judge Hoffman and Judge Smith have failed, due to the fact local lawyers desire not to oppose them. In each incident a candidate must be licensed to practice law in Missouri before qualifying for the office.

This afternoon Harry Cooney filed for the Democratic nomination for prosecuting attorney, opposing L. J. Harned, Republican present holder of the office, who seeks re-election.

For Presiding Judge

Dr. M. E. Gouge was drafted by the Democratic county committee at a meeting Monday night, and filed for the office of presiding judge of the county court this morning. Dr. Gouge, in announcing he would accept, said: "From your actions I know the support of the entire committee is behind me and I shall do everything in my power to be elected." He opposes Judge J. V. Kesterson, Republican, who is seeking re-election.

Louis F. Ritchie, Republican, Monday evening filed for the nomination on his party ticket, for circuit clerk. Mr. Ritchie is opposed to Bryan Howe, Democrat, who likewise is seeking re-election.

Mrs. Sparrow told police a thief had apparently taken $1,000 which had been in easy view in the purse, but had overlooked the $4,000 secreted in the bag, before tossing the purse into the Fitzgerald's back yard.

For Representative

Jesse Paul, a former State Representative, has filed for the Democratic nomination for recorder of deeds. Opposing on the Republican ticket by Miss Hazel Palmer, who seeks re-election to the office.

Roy Otis Edgar filed this morning for the Democratic nomination for county clerk. Edgar is opposed on the Republican ticket by James H. Green, present holder of the office and who seeks the nomination on the Republican ticket.

Robert Younger filed several days ago for the Democratic nomination for recorder of deeds. Opposing on the Republican ticket is John C. Ryan, who seeks re-election to the office.

Eisenhower Proclaimed 'Terrific Guy'

HONOLULU, April 30.—(P)—General Eisenhower was acclaimed a "terrific guy" at Army's Tripler General hospital yesterday.

He turned his inspection into a continuous informal visit from bed to bed, asking the men how they received their wounds and reminiscing about battles in Europe.

He signed the cast of one soldier, debated with another as to whether Kansas or South Dakota produced the best farmers, and praised the patriotism of the Japanese-American troops who fought under him.

As he left the hospital a wounded veteran explained:

"What a terrific guy! He didn't even bust up our poker game. That's a general for you."

At one point, he promised to personally look into a general order which appeared to provide for the sale of pistols, carbines and binoculars to officers but not to enlisted men.

Child Finds Purse, $4,000

WASHINGTON, April 30.—(P)—Eleven-year-old Dolores Fitzgerald started for the grocery store to get her mother a loaf of bread and came back with $4,000 instead. Here's what happened:

In her own backyard she found an old, dilapidated pocketbook yesterday. She thought Mom might want to see it, even though some of her seven brothers and sisters urged her to throw it away "cause it's so wet and dirty."

As Mrs. Annette Fitzgerald turned over the purse, the children watched the contents drop on the kitchen table—a pair of eyeglasses, gloves, string of beads and $4,000 in bills in a bag.

The Fitzgeralds took the treasure to police. They located the owner, Mrs. Celia Sparrow, through a money order found in the purse. Dolores is going to get $50 for her honesty.

Mrs. Sparrow told police a thief had apparently taken $1,000 which had been in easy view in the purse, but had overlooked the $4,000 secreted in the bag, before tossing the purse into the Fitzgerald's back yard.

Merry-Go-Round

by Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, April 30—Ten senators — both Democrats and Republicans — got together secretly the other day to study that most sacred of all sacred cows — senate rules. Behind their meeting was the conviction that die-hard Dixie Democrats can block any measure they oppose via the filibuster and that the majority must rule if democracy is to function in the USA.

The secret meeting took place after senators received a flood of letters both for and against the attempt by Wayne Morse, Oregon Republican to secure passage of the anti-poll tax bill through unanimous consent of the senate. Only senators on the floor at the time Morse attempted this strategy were Morse himself and Republican William Langer of North Dakota.

Liberal Democrat Warren Magnuson of Seattle, Wash., was presiding. Had he immediately asked senators if there was objection, there would have been none and the anti-poll tax bill would have passed. Morse had identified the bill only by number, so Magnuson did not at once recognize it. But, even if he had, probably he would have hesitated to pass a controversial bill without debate.

He was rescued from this dilemma by Senator Ernest MacFarland, Arizona Democrat, who quickly came to the floor and objected.

Since then, senate mail has been strong with letters both objecting to the Morse attempt as trickery and supporting Morse on the ground that this strategy was no more unfair than the filibuster. Regardless of the above merits, a bi-partisan group of ten senators has determined that the senate rules must be changed. They seek to limit debate on any single bill to ten days, which would bring up the anti-poll tax bill, already passed by the house, before the senate recesses. They are thinking also of bringing up legislation to create a permanent FEP—provided they succeed in winning their amendment to the senate rules.

The ten senators are: Democrats—Pepper (Fla.), Guffey (Pa.), Magnuson (Wash.), Glen Taylor (Idaho), Huffman (Ohio), Kilgore (W. Va.) and Mead (N. Y.); Republicans — Ferguson (Mich.), Knowland (Cal.) and Capper of Kansas.

Stettinius' Ghost

This column recently revealed that Ed Stettinius, U. S. delegate to the United Nations and former secretary of state, tried to get the state department to assign him a ghost writer at the taxpayers' expense to turn out a new book under Stettinius' name. Secretary James Byrnes, however, turned this down.

We now find that in 1943, Stettinius undertook to fabricate a book on lend-lease for MacMillan's. Stettinius, then lend-lease administrator, arranged for one full-time writer from OWI to be assigned to him to write the book, while two full-time lawyers from the lend-lease agency helped the OWI writer.

All three worked full time for six months. When the book was published, only Stettinius' name appeared, despite the fact that the former secretary of state had actually written only a few paragraphs.

Total cost to the government for authoring this book was estimated at around $50,000. Royalties from the book, however, did not go to the treasury. Instead, they went to a special philanthropic fund selected by Stettinius.

Chief ghost-writer for the Stettinius lend-lease book was Weller Foote, who had started with the office of war information at $3,200 a year, was later rewarded with an $8,000-a-year job. His final reward, however, is his appointment as Stettinius' public relations chief at the United Nations in New York.

Republican Lament

Congressional scuttling of the OPA bill has brought public wrath not only on the heads of guilty congressmen, but on even the blameless few who fought doggedly to preserve price controls.

A typical example is Republican representative Dick Welch of San Francisco, who voted against every crippling OPA amendment right down the line. Yet Welch is receiving numerous letters from Chairman Thomas looked warily down the minority side of the table at the six Republicans present and served notice that he had three "proxy" votes of Democratic absences. He didn't, however, have to use any persuasion on GOP senators Warren Austin of Vermont and Chan Gurney of South Dakota, who always salam aza in the direction of the Pentagon building.

Pan-American Union

Thanks to Latin American governments, work on the new $1,000,000 administrative building of the Pan-American Union in Washington can proceed as scheduled.

Long-dormant plans for the office were recently revived, but it was found that today's materials and labor costs were up nearly 70 per cent over 1928, when the blueprints were first drawn.

However, Pan-American officials did not consider this a serious problem. Eighteen years ago, the Carnegie foundation made a memorial to the Pan-American Union, and the Pan-American Union is now in the process of erecting a new building.

Final Symphony Concert of the Season to Capacity Audience

Richard Johnson and David Milliken, duo-pianists, who appeared as guest artists with the Sedalia Symphony orchestra in its final program of the eleventh season, under the baton of Abe Rosenthal, displayed brilliant synchronization and sensitive interpretation that elicited high praise from a "standing room only" audience Monday night at the Smith-Cotton high school auditorium.

Subtly retaining their individuality of styles Johnson and Milliken demonstrated remarkable pianistic correlation and compelling, harmonious two-piano unity. Their skillful musicianship was augmented by engaging showmanship.

Able Orchestra Support

A challenge in technique and coordinative facility was met by them in the Concerto in E Flat composed in 1774 by Wolfgang Mozart for two pianos. In this vivacious classical number the pianists had the able support of the orchestra which provided background for the sparkling keyboard performance, the soloists achieving dominance in the expansive passage with refreshing vitality.

The rich and colorful overture to Glinka's opera, Ruslan and Ludmilla, with which Mr. Rosenthal and the orchestra opened the concert, set the pace for an evening of bright music. Written in one tempo, Presto, the overture was zestfully played, with effective shading of contrast patterns.

The Allegretto movement of Haydn's Military Symphony, forerunner of modern symphonic works, was given a delightfully developed reading by the orchestra, the melodic themes being happily sustained.

Descriptive Airs Portrayed

The guest artists in the second half of the program introduced a clever suite, "Memories of Childhood," by the Brazilian composer, Pinto. The five descriptive airs—poignant and playful—were wittily woven by the duo-pianists, who are in their twenties and therefore yet mindful of the imaginative flights of children—a realm into which, in truth adults like to escape.

Continuing with presentations of contemporaries, Johnson and Milliken offered three two-piano works of Homer Simons: the risible "The Gryphon and the Mock-Turtle," a musical portrayal of the fantastic characters from "Alice in Wonderland," the spirited "Scherzino," in which the agility of their fingering again was noted, and the alluring, tantalizing "Tango at Midnight." Their playing was scintillating in these melodious pieces, which are modern without mutilating compositional codes.

Completing their programmed presentations the pianists played the composite "Festivals" of Claude Debussy, excitingly executing and exhibiting their dynamic range.

Both Mr. Johnson and Mr. Milliken play with a clear, forceful technique and by the dexterity of their fingers and the beauty of their phrasing are able to draw from the piano keyboard the entire range of emotions. They are keenly aware of the characteristic styles of different composers and particularly authoritative was their interpretation of the Mozartean styling in the featured concerto.

Three Encores

In response to enthusiastic and insistent applause of the audience the artists gave three encores: the captivating "Samba" akin to the "Rhumba," from Milhaud's "Scar-ameouche" suite, Rudolf Friml's "Donkey Serenade" and an arrangement of the Negro spiritual "Deep River."

The picturesque "Oklahoma" selection, embodying a group of the hits from that musical show, was played by the orchestra in bringing to a close the first part of the program.

Wives Of U. S. Soldiers Met By Husbands

Forty-four End
5,000 Mile Journey
To Frankfurt

By Thomas A. Reedy

BERLIN, Tuesday, April 30—(P)

—Forty-four wives of U. S. army soldiers wound up early today a 5,000-mile journey to join their husbands when they stepped a bit groggily from a 13-coach train after a 14-hour ride from the Bremerhaven docks.

"Where have you been?" jubilant officers and enlisted men shouted as the first contingent of army dependents arrived at the suburban Wann See railroad station.

Most of the wives and 21 sleepy-eyed children, up and about since they embarked from the Thomas H. Barry at 4:30 a. m., Monday, were too tired to do much more than wave. The soldiers climbed aboard almost before the wheels stopped rolling and from Lt. Gen. Lucius D. Clay on down the line, they threw decorum to the winds with open and unashamed bear hugs.

One incident marked the last leg of the journey. Susan Hummey, one-year-old daughter of Lt.

Robert and Mrs. Helen Mumney, of Cleveland, Ohio, was stricken with fever and removed to a British hospital at Brunswick.

The train pulled in four hours late. Most of the delay occurred after entry into the Russian zone when one locomotive after another broke down.

Some of the babies met their fathers for the first time. For several completely worn out youngsters their first hello to daddy turned out to be a loud wail.

Scarcely anyone paid any attention to the bunting and martial music that greeted the train. The band's program included the song, "There'll Be Some Changes Made."

It brings new endurance and strength to protect hot, fast-moving motors. Only the "heart cut" of fine paraffin base crudes is used for higher heat-resistance, less vaporization loss, high film strength, better lubrication! The patented solvent-process does not destroy the rich, smooth "natural" oiliness of this fine oil.

Three Apply For Every Job

JEFFERSON CITY, April 30—(P)—Will S. Denham, United States employment service director, reported today there are eight job seekers for every job in Missouri.

The wide spread between applicants and openings exists in virtually every office of the USES," Denham said, adding that "This is evidence of the job gap the USES is trying to close through development of a job integration program in Missouri communities."

An inventory of the 40 employment offices in the state shows 106,713 active job seekers, including 62,693 veterans with openings for only 13,585 workers.

Denham said the shortage of jobs made it necessary to refer on the average of three applicants to every job.

Major League Leaders Facing The 'Acid Test'

Starting Today the Dodgers and Red Sox Encounter Different Brand of Baseball

By Jack Hand
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The major league's current pace makers — Brooklyn's precocious kids and Boston's slugging Red Sox — go on trial today when they engage the defending 1945 champions for the first time.

For the Dodgers' youthful crew, the opening inter-sectional series takes them to Chicago and then around the horn to St. Louis, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati will be an acid test.

Although the Brooks swept through the East on an eight-game winning spree until they collapsed at New York Sunday, they have been feasting on inept pitching offered by the Phillies and Giants.

Rookies Dick Whitman, Carl Furillo and Ferrell Anderson have been doing a good job but they have been breaking into the big show under most favorable conditions. Now they encounter some real "pros." Hank Borowy is slated to oppose Ed (No-Hit) Head today and they'll be looking at Max Lanier, Joe Beggs, Rip Sewell, Ed Heusser and Bucky Walters before they come home.

Just as in the case of Brooklyn, the Red Sox have yet to see their league's best pitching. They face Hal Newhouser today and probably Dizzy Trout and Al Benton later before Cleveland comes in with Bobby Feller, Steve Gromek, Alie Reynolds and Red Embree. St. Louis and Chicago follow.

While the Red Sox are tangling with the world champions, the Yankees open a lone home stand with Cleveland. Manager Lou Boudreau has nominated a slightly "peev'd" Bobby Feller to take the hill today. It seems Rapid Robert is upset by the inference in some quarters that he is "slipping" because he dropped two of his first three starts.

Washington's slow start has been cause for concern in the east but Ossie Bluege hopes to get his left-handed hitting lineup started against the Chicago White Sox tossers. Luke Sewell's St. Louis Browns, off to a 500 start, hope to climb into contention by slapping down Philadelphia in the other series opener.

In other National league inter-sectional openers, New York is at St. Louis, Boston at Cincinnati and Philadelphia at Pittsburgh.

St. Louis, the odds-on pennant choice, warms up for the Dodgers by going three rounds with the Giants who experienced a sudden awakening with the addition of Goody Rosen. Giant owner Horace Stoneham is still talking about a deal with St. Louis for pitching and this first visit would be the logical time to talk turkey.

Just a Year Ago Today...

TWENTY-TWO years earlier, the rabble-rousing ex-corporal Adolf Hitler led a band of political fanatics from this Munich beer cellar in an abortive attempt to overthrow the German government. On April 30, 1945, the Nazi shrine hardly attracted the notice of American soldiers marching into the city, grinning with the knowledge that German broadcasters were declaring, "The end may come tomorrow!" Hitler himself was silent. The Fuehrer who had screamed arrogant threats to the world for so many years was mysteriously missing as his nation writhed in the death throes of the war it began.

The Greek government has given the British empire 20 acres near Phaliron on the Gulf of Athens for a cemetery for British war dead.
